Dining Room

Nestled in the heart of a picturesque neighborhood with access to New Providence's top rated schools, this home is one not to be missed!

Living Room

An open concept living room/dining room with rich hardwood floors, custom trims and decorative moldings enjoy a picture window that lets the light pour in.

Warm honey cabinets, countertops, glass tile backsplash and ceramic flooring were updated in the kitchen, complete with stainless steel appliances, a breakfast bar with seating and sliders that open to a newer paver patio framed with knee walls overlooking a pretty yard and play area surrounded by privacy plantings.

Two sunny first-floor bedrooms, each with hardwood floors and windows on two sides, and an updated full hall bath reside on the first floor. The home's versatile Cape style lends itself beautifully to multiple options – a convenient first-floor bedroom, playroom or home office – buyer's choice! Central air conditioning throughout adds comfort and value.

The second-floor master bedroom and fourth bedroom each have generous custom-fitted closets, hardwood floors, and views on two sides. A pristine hall bath dressed in white with tub shower and beadboard wainscoting serves the two bedrooms.

Lower level

Newly renovated with lighting, attractive wood-style laminate flooring and ample storage closets, the lower level recreation room offers extra leisure living space, along with a play/exercise area and washer/dryer.

Nestled in the heart of a picturesque neighborhood known for its annual block party in September – the perfect time to meet new neighbors -- coupled with access to New Providence's top rated schools, this special home is one not to be missed!
